

EXPLOSION ROBS CRACK TROOPS OF FINE TRAPPINGS

Three Cars of Richmond Blues
Train Destroyed in New Haven Station.

TWO SOLDIERS BURNED.

Fire Which Caused Loss to Railway Company Handicaps
Militiamen on Parade.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 10.—A gas explosion and fire in the western end of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad station here early today caused a loss of about $10,000, which includes baggage belonging to the crack military company of Virginia, the Richmond Blues, which is being entertained here by the Second Company, Governor's Footguards.

Quartermaster-Sergeant C. C. Boeseau, of the Richmond Blues, and B. W. Arnold, of the Foot Guards, who were in one of three baggage cars, containing the militiamen's effects, were burned by a rush of flames following the explosion. They made their way to the door, where friends carried them to safety. After doctors had attended to their injuries, which were declared not very serious, both men were taken to the Tontine hotel.

The blaze, insignificant at the start, became of threatening proportions in a few minutes because of the ignition and blowing up of the Pintsch gas tanks, from which cars were supplied while in the station.

The fire was first seen under a car in which the baggage of the Richmond Blues had been brought from Hartford just before midnight. After the gas explosion the flames went all over the woodwork of the train shed in the section west of the main waiting room, covering a portion of the structure 150 feet long.

Before firemen were in control the three cars, which made up the Richmond Blues' special train, were ablaze. Some express matter in the Adams Express Company's room was destroyed. In the baggage of the Richmond Blues were many dress uniforms used on parade.

When the burned cars were examined it was found that about half of the uniforms contained in six or seven trunks had been lost. Enough of the full-dress uniforms were saved to fit out one company of the Blues for the parade which occurred this afternoon. The remainder of the uniforms had to march in fatigue uniforms.

Quartermaster-Sergeant Boeseau, of the Blues, although suffering from burns, took part in the automobile parade, which formed a part of the morning programme. Mr. Arnold, however, had to remain at the Tontine hotel.

It was recalled by some of the members of the footguard this morning that when the footguards were the guests of the Richmond Blues in Virginia the armory of the latter organization was burned. The equipment, part of which was lost in this morning's fire, was all new.

BALLOONS LAND AFTER NIGHT IN CLOUDS IN TEST

"Heart of Berkshires" Drops
Near Plymouth Bay, and
"Boston" in Bridgewater.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Sept. 10.—In company across Massachusetts, although at no time in sight of each other, two balloons reached the eastern side of the State today, landing in Plymouth County, within a few miles of each other. The balloons ascended at midnight, one from Springfield and the other from Pittsfield. The aeronauts consider that the tours constituted perfect balloon flights under ideal conditions.

The balloon "Pittsfield Heart of the Berkshires" was the one which ascended from the city for which it is named. It was piloted by William Van Fleet and carried Dr. Sidney S. Stowell as a passenger. It landed in the Black Water district of the town of Kingston, within two miles of the Atlantic Ocean, and more than 10 miles from the starting point.

The other balloon, the Boston, owned and piloted by Charles J. Glidden and carrying Prof. H. Helm Clayton, of the Hitt Spring Observatory, as a passenger, left Springfield and landed within the borders of the Stanley Manufacturing Company at Bridgewater Junction, a mile from the town of Bridgewater, and within fifteen miles of the spot where the Pittsfield balloon came down.

The Pittsfield balloon traversed about 10 miles in an air line from the place of ascension, while the Boston covered about thirty miles.

Each balloon made its landing safely and without incident between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning. Both "Pittsfield" and Prof. Clayton were enthusiastic over their trip in the Boston, declaring it one of the most enjoyable that they could be made. The night was clear and warm, and a brilliant full September moon bathed the underlying earth, revealing it almost as plainly as day-light.

The landings were made without difficulty. The balloons were quickly packed up and placed upon a train and the aeronauts left for Boston before a clock.

The Zeppelins in the new aerial coach and to make atmospheric and other tests. They will report the results later today.

"DEATH DOES NOT NULLIFY LICENSE"

Magistrate Wable Rules on an Interesting Excise
Case.

In an opinion handed down in Yorkville Police Court today Magistrate Wable decided that a hotel license does not expire upon the death of its holder, but that an administrator, executor or receiver may either continue to traffic in liquor during the life of the license or secure its value from the State.

Robert Miller, bartender at the Van Twiller Hotel, Nos. 57 and 59 Lexington avenue, was charged with selling liquor without a proper license, that of the place having been in the name of Harry Nobel, who died on Aug. 12.

Asst. Capt. Flannolly, of the East Twenty-second street station, told the Magistrate that on Aug. 12 application was made to the State Excise Board to revoke Nobel's license, but when the matter was called for hearing, the Board was informed that Nobel was dead. Capt. Flannolly said that the Excise Board thereupon sent word to Commissioner Bonch to see that business was not continued in the place under the Nobel license.

Magistrate Wable decided that Miller had a right to continue the business under the license of his employer until an executor or administrator had taken charge of the estate.

JAPANESE HELD IN BURGLARY CASE

Jetano Nogami Is Charged
With Breaking Into the Nippon Club.

Jetano Nogami, a Japanese, who is Americanized enough to also have an alias, "Joseph Haggammy," was arrested early today after he had, it is alleged, forced an entrance into the Nippon Club at No. 44 West Eighty-fifth street and been frightened by a burglar alarm.

The complainant against Jetano was Akira H. O. Mushi, steward of the club, who charges that his fellow countryman "attempted to steal $200 worth of silverware and furniture."

Jetano, it is charged, climbed a rear fence and got up to the gratings over the windows on the lower floor, jimmied a window and started to enter. The burglar alarm went off and someone telephoned to Police Headquarters. Detective Thorpe was sent around. He says he found Jetano hiding in a cellar at No. 39 West Eighty-fourth street. Magistrate Hoffman held Jetano in $1,000 bail for trial.

Men's Clothing Ready-to-Wear

The Best Grades Obtainable For Less Than You Must Pay Elsewhere

Men's Store, Fifth Floor.

THE making of highest grade apparel ready-to-wear is monopolized by no one or a few manufacturers, nor is the distribution of such clothing confined to one or a few dealers. Notions to the contrary are encouraged by hunger for excessive profits. If you would have convincing proof, try to match Macy's clothing values in any other shop. That you will fail is not because we buy apparel for less money than other good stores pay, but because we sell on a smaller margin of profit, thanks to our rigidly cash system.

Displays of Fall Model Suits and Overcoats are full rounded:

Men's Suits	$14.75 to $34.75
Men's Overcoats	$14.75 to $34.75
Youths' Suits	$9.94 to $24.75
Youths' Overcoats	$12.50 to $17.75

Young Men's Suits, $9.94 to $24.75

MODELS as conservative as you please, or with radicalism running riot. Some one suggests that the extreme styles shown this season might have been influenced by the Director's modes in apparel for the opposite sex. The young man's province to judge—ours to furnish such a selection as is not surpassed in any other shop. The range of prices—$9.94 to $24.75—gives an idea of the variety.

Men's Custom Tailoring

THIS branch of our apparel organization engages to furnish apparel made to measure and entirely to the purchaser's liking for a full one-third less than specialty tailors demand for garments of equal merit.

Sack Suits, $25.00 to $45.00. Top Coats, $25.00 to $45.00. Cutaway Frock Coats, with waistcoats, serge lined, $23.00, $28.00, $32.00. Double-breasted Frock Coats, with waistcoats, lined with serge and faced with silk, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00. Silk lined throughout, $35.00 to $50.00. Men's Striped Worsted Trousers, $8.00 to $14.00.

Women's Silk Petticoats, $3.79

BUT a hundred of them—and one wonders that garments of this sort can be had completed for so little more than the bare cost of the silk. They are made of heavy quality taffeta, in black and staple shades; deep Spanish flounces with tucks, finished with knife pleated ruffle and small ruffle; percaline underlay. Finer Silk Petticoats in stock up to $12.49.

"J. B." Corsets: Two Specials

At 98c, Value $1.50—Corsets made of fine white batiste, prettily trimmed with lace and ribbon; model for average figures—medium high bust and long deep back; hose supporters attached front and side; sizes 18 to 26.

Sign of the Best School

Footwear Money Can Buy

ONE thing about buying Children's Footwear haphazardly is that the foot troubles ill-fitting Shoes cause develop in later years and can be remedied only by the chiropodist.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." "Right Shape" Shoes, by shaping growing feet along NATURAL lines, prevent future foot troubles.

"Right Shape" lasts are of special design—designed by an expert who has made a life study of juvenile footwear.

The final argument in favor of "Right Shape" Shoes is the cost of "Right Shape" Shoes. Shoes equally as well made and not of special design cost a fourth to a third more elsewhere. Prove it by these: MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S BOOTS, patent leather, tan Russia calfskin, black calfskin and kidskin high cut—Size 5½ to 10½, pair $1.09; sizes 11 to 2, pair $1.98; sizes 2½ to 5—large girls, $2.80.

BOOTS, as above, regulation height; sizes 8 to 2, pair $1.49.

LITTLE MEN'S SHOES, of black calfskin and kidskin, with solid oak leather welted soles; sizes 10 to 1½, pair $1.08.

Boys' School and Dress Shoes

Furniture and Bedding

See These Offerings If You Think Midsummer Sale Values Cannot Be Duplicated

FROM an underprice standpoint this sale is quite as important as the recent Midsummer Sale. The saving over our regular prices is fully as great. Only the sale is smaller—the stocks of under-price Furniture and Bedding involved now are insignificant compared with the stocks we had in the midsummer event. But prospective buyers should be interested chiefly in the saving—and be prompt, for early selection means best selection.
